

Local Food Tour

Take a look at our favourite list of places around Prague. Some of them are quiet and non-touristy, some of them vibrant and lively, but all of them are great!

Werichova vila – have a delicious dessert in a house of Czech actor, Jan Werich, who acted in Shakespear’s play on Broadway. With a cigar and an ashtray still placed on his desk, the house looks like he has just left it even though he died over 40 years ago. Nowadays the café downstairs makes a dessert called „hedgehog in a cage“.

Špejle – vibrant atmosphere, modern food, Czech-style tapas.

Kuchyň – beautiful views, Czech cuisine, good prices, friendly staff, ideal in summer.

Karlštejn castle – surrounded by sexy hills and located half-an-hour romantic train-ride from Prague. Charles IV, a holy roman emperor and bohemian king, used to chill here in a chapel full of holy relics.

Kulový blesk – just another cellar frequented by beer-loving locals. That is why it is absolutely awesome.

Zlatý kříž – mom and pop deli where you stand while you eat your classical open-faced sandwich made of top ingredients.

Vyšehrad – ever wondered how St. Valentine’s shoulder blade looks like? You have an opportunity to see it with your very own eyes every year at st. Peter and Paul’s church at Vysehrad, on february 14, Valentine’s day.

Havlíčkovy sady – a picnic area, a park, a vineyard, all in one. An oasis, located away from overcrowded city centre. You will never guess what they have there... .. vine!

Břevnov monastery – Let tram 22 take you there, because it is one of the oldest monasteries in Prague founded in 993. And they have brewery!

Eska – one of top modern Czech restaurants in Prague!
